The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday Auguſt 22. to Saturday Auguſt 26. 1727.

St. James's, Auguſt 26.

THE following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace and Heretors in the County of Perth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Athol, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to declare our deep Concern for the Deceaſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our hearty and ſincere Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Royal Family, and of our firm Reſolution and Purpoſe to ſupport, maintain and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty and Government, both in Church and State, and the Succeſſion to the Crown as it ſtands preſently eſtabliſhed in the Proteſtant Line.

And we beg Leave to offer our moſt ardent Wiſhes and Deſires for the Health and long Life of your Majeſty, and of your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, and for the Proſperity of your Royal Off-ſpring, which is a great Bleſſing to the Nation; and that your Majeſty may have a long and proſperous Reign, for the Glory of your Royal Family, and the Good of your People, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of, &c.

The following humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the Shire of Renfrew, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Roſs, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects of your ancient Patrimony and Barony of Renfrew, moſt humbly intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to declare our Sorrow and Grief for our Loſs in the Death of our late Sovereign, and at the ſame time to congratulate your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

The Remembrance of that Stedfaſtneſs and Valour with which your Majeſty early diſtinguiſhed yourſelf in Defence of the Proteſtant Religion and the Liberties of Europe; the Mildneſs and Prudence with which your Majeſty conducted the Reins of Government when Regent of theſe Kingdoms; and the other Princely Virtues inherent in your Majeſty's Perſon, have not only charm'd the Hearts of your loving Subjects, ſo conſpicuous at the Proclamation of your Right and Title, but will effectually conquer the moſt obſtinate, repair to your People the Loſs of your Royal Predeceſſour, and ſecure them in the Enjoyment of all that is dear and valuable; of which we have a very recent Proof, in the Security given by your Majeſty, for the Maintenance of the Government of this eſtabliſh'd Church.

For our Parts, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to all the Intereſts of your Government and Family, and of our Readineſs to follow theſe outward Expreſſions of our Zeal through a Courſe of all thoſe Duties, however expenſive or hazardous, that ſhall become faithful and obedient Subjects to the beſt of Sovereigns.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be very long and full of Glory; that the Crown may flouriſh on your Head, and ſhine with redoubled Splendour; that indulgent Heaven may bleſs your Royal Conſort the Queen's Majeſty, and may preſerve for Ages yet unborn an endleſs Succeſſion of great and good Princes of your illuſtrious Houſe, as a conſtant Spring of Happineſs, and a Bulwark to the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe, is, and ſhall be the Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt loyal, and moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Addreſs of the Heritable Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and other Heretors of the Shire of Roxburgh, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Douglaſs of Cavers, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, under deep Concern for the unexpected Death of our late moſt gracious King your Royal Father, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's peaceful and happy Succeſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; and with great Joy to acknowledge this to be a ſignal Inſtance of the Divine Favour, that the Throne is thereby fill'd with a Prince deſirous above all things to make us a great and happy People.

The early Appearances your Majeſty made for the Proteſtant Religion and Liberties of Europe, your moſt prudent and mild Adminiſtration when Regent of the Kingdom, the diſtinguiſhing Love and Affection you have all along ſhewn to theſe Kingdoms, and your fix'd Reſolution to preſerve the Conſtitution in Church and State inviolable in all its Parts, give us an aſſured Proſpect of a moſt happy Reign.

We embrace this Occaſion to beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, againſt a Popiſh Pretender, and all others who may attempt to diſturb the Peace of this Realm, or other your Majeſty's Dominions.

That your Reign may be long and proſperous over us; that the beſt of Bleſſings may be poured down upon your Royal Conſort our gracious Queen, and your Royal Iſſue; and that to lateſt Poſterity there may never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Family to ſway the Scepter over theſe Nations, are the moſt ſincere and ardent Wiſhes of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Juſtices of the Peace, and Heretors of the Shire of Linlithgow or Weſt-Lothian, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hopton, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, upon the ſudden and unexpected Demiſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, whoſe Memory will be always ſacred and grateful to future Ages for his Wiſdom and Fatherly Care of his People, and for his ſteady and unwearied Proſecution of the Peace and true Intereſt of Europe,

Do with all Humility beg Leave to expreſs our great Senſe of the Goodneſs of Almighty God towards theſe Lands, who has prepared a Prince to fill his Throne and that of your Royal Anceſtors, diſtinguiſhed by all the Kingly Qualities which promiſe Peace, Proſperity, and Honour to a Nation.

Your Majeſty's known Love of Juſtice, your true and diſtinguiſhing Knowledge of Men and Things, and Concern for our Religious and Civil Rights, ſupported by an uncommon and approven Valour, are ſuch Pledges of Succeſs and Glory to your Undertakings, as muſt fill the Hearts of all your Subjects with Joy, Hope and Confidence, and draw that Aſſurance from them, which we now humbly offer, of our unfeigned Love and Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Royal Family, and of our fix'd and ſteady Reſolution to defend with our Lives and Fortunes your Majeſty's Government, againſt all the Attempts of your Enemies Foreign and Domeſtick.

That God may long preſerve your ſacred Perſon, inſpire your Counſels and crown them with Succeſs, bleſs your Royal Conſort our gracious Queen, the happy Mother of a numerous and Royal Iſſue; and that He may protect and guide his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and all the reſt of the Royal Family, is the ſincere and unfeigned Prayer of, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt dutiful, and moſt faithful Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Kincairden, aſſembled at the Head Burgh of the ſaid County, upon the 18th Day of July 1727, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Scott, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, do beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty the great Loſs you ſuffer by the Death of your Royal Father our late Sovereign, which does much affect us and all your good Subjects.

Nothing could give us Hopes of ſeeing his mild and wiſe Government ſupplied, but your Majeſty's ſucceeding to him, and to the Imperial Crown of your Royal Anceſtors, which we wiſh may long flouriſh under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration with Succeſs and Glory to yourſelf, and to the Britiſh Nation: This we cannot doubt of, when we have your Royal Word from the Throne, that your Majeſty will be pleaſed to think, that the Love of your People will be the beſt Support and Security of it, and that it will be your Majeſty's conſtant Care to preſerve the Conſtitution in Church and State.

We cannot have the leaſt Diffidence of the Happineſs that will attend your Majeſty's Reign, if we remember the Time of your Majeſty's Regency in your Royal Father's Abſence; it gives us and all your Subjects the ſtrongeſt ſtrongeſt Hopes of enjoying the Advantages of thoſe Royal and Heroick Qualities Providence has endowed you with.

The conſummate Wiſdom of your Royal Father our late Sovereign, by concluding ſo many different Treaties of Alliances with Foreign Powers, aſſure us, among other Bleſſings, of a nearer Proſpect of Peace; the finiſhing of that beneficial Work is now left and devolved on your Majeſty, as well as his great and extended Dominions.

Among the Felicities your Subjects may expect from your Majeſty's ſucceeding to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, it is one of the greateſt, to ſee that you are bleſſed and your Royal Conſort with ſuch an illuſtrious and numerous Succeſſion, which are ſo many Pledges for ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt both at Home and Abroad; for which Intereſt your Majeſty early expoſed, with the utmoſt Bravery, your ſacred Perſon.

Be pleaſed, Great Sir, graciouſly to accept of the Aſſurances we humbly offer your Majeſty of our Duty and Loyalty; and that to our Power, our Lives and Fortunes ſhall be employed to ſupport your Majeſty, and the Conſtitution in Church and State. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Signed in Preſence, and by Order of the Meeting, by Sir Peter Fraiſer Lord Lieutenant.

Peter Fraiſer.

The following humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Dumfries, and Stewartry of Annandale, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry and Dover. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, under unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to approach your Sacred Perſon, and declare, That under all our Concern, how great ſoever, Joy ſprung within us from your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

The Courage by which your Majeſty was early diſtinguiſhed in the dangerous Struggle for the Proteſtant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe; the great Prudence and Wiſdom by which your Majeſty engaged the Hearts of your Subjects, when under your gentle Government as Regent of the Kingdom, and your moſt gracious Declaration, give the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of ſo full a Diſplay of Royal Endowments from the Crown of Great Britain on your Sacred Head, as muſt adorn the Regal Dignity, eſtabliſh our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and lay the Foundations of perpetual Peace and Happineſs among us.

Permit us therefore joyfully to congratulate your Majeſty, and to congratulate your Kingdoms, that in Peace, and with the higheſt Satisfaction of your Subjects, your Majeſty is poſſeſſed of the Imperial Crowns of theſe Realms; and humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, againſt all the Attempts of a Popiſh Pretender and his Adherents, and againſt all your Enemies ſecret or open.

May your Majeſty long reign the Delight and Darling of your People; happy under a mild and auſpicious Adminiſtration: And may the beſt of Bleſſings be poured down upon your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, and the Royal Iſſue, Pledges of Peace and Happineſs to our lateſt Poſterity. Theſe are the moſt ſincere and ardent Wiſhes of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Dumbarton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Ila, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To His moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT was with inexpreſſible Grief we received the ſurprizing News of the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Father, of glorious Memory; and it is with great Joy we congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, as a ſignal Bleſſing from Heaven to this and all the Reformed Churches.

We adore that Divine Providence which brought your Majeſty to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms. The eminent Proofs your Majeſty has given of your Steadineſs and Zeal to the Proteſtant Religion, perſwade us, that your Majeſty inherits that Spirit and Virtue which ſhined ſo illuſtriouſly in your Heroic Anceſtors, and yield the agreeable Proſpect of enjoying great Peace and Tranquility under your auſpicious Reign.

The early Expreſſions we received of your Majeſty's Royal Favour to this National Church, do aſſure us of your Royal Protection in our Religion, Laws and Liberties, the valuable Bleſſings of our preſent Eſtabliſhment, which are dearer to us than our Lives.

We beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt loyal and dutiful Allegiance to your Majeſty's Perſon and Goverment; and that we judge ourſelves bound in Conſcience and Intereſt to impreſs all under our Charge with ſincere Affection and an unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty, as our only rightful and lawful Sovereign.

That Almighty God may bleſs your Majeſty with long Life and a proſperous Reign: That Religion and Righteouſneſs may be the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne: That He may bleſs your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Iſſue, is, and ſhall be the hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Ja. Baine, Moderator.

The following humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Hindon, in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Heathcote and ------ Andrews, Eſqrs. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit your moſt dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of your ancient and loyal Borough of Hindon, to approach your Royal Perſon to expreſs our juſt Concern for the univerſal Loſs this Nation ſuſtains in the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign.

The Preſervation of the Rights and Liberties of his People, his conſtant and prudent Care in providing for the Support of the Honour and Intereſt of this Nation, and the happy Tranquility we enjoyed under his wiſe Adminiſtration, have render'd his Memory dear and ſacred to us.

But of all the Bleſſings derived to us from him, there is none that equals that which we at preſent enjoy in the Eſtabliſhment of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family: Thoſe exalted Virtues that adorn your Character, the good Effects we have already felt from them, with the many and particular Inſtances of Affection you have always ſhewn to this Nation, give us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of our being the greateſt and happieſt People in the World.

We therefore, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration from the Throne, ſo perfectly agreeable to the Britiſh Conſtitution, and ſo well becoming the Wiſdom and Goodneſs of the beſt of Princes, call for the moſt grateful and particular Acknowledgments of all your Subjects, and the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances which we are capable of making, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, endeavour to ſupport and maintain the invaluable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's excellent Adminiſtration.

If there were any Room left for an Addition to our Happineſs, the Proſpect of its being continued down to our lateſt Poſterity by your Majeſty's numerous Royal Progeny, educated under the Influence and Example of your Majeſty and the Queen your Royal Conſort, would fully compleat it.

That your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and glorious, and ever attended with Felicity to yourſelf, equal to that you give your People, will be the conſtant Prayers of this your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Burgh of Dundee, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave, in this Manner to approach your Throne with others of your loyal Subjects to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late Sovereign, whoſe ſeaſonable Acceſſion to the Crown preſerved unto us, and we firmly hope, ſecured to Poſterity after us, the unſpeakable Bleſſings of the late glorious Revolution and Proteſtant Succeſſion, and under whoſe wiſe Adminiſtration we were made ſenſible of the happy Effects of his paternal Care of his People.

What ſupports us under ſo great a Loſs is your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne, your undoubted Right, in a moſt peaceable Manner, and with the joyful Acclamations of all your loyal Subjects; upon which, we moſt chearfully Congratulate your Majeſty, having full Hopes from your eminent Royal Virtues, that we ſhall enjoy under your Reign, all the Bleſſings that can be derived from a Sovereign according to our Wiſhes.

We are greatly encouraged by your Majeſty's having declared in the Beginning of your auſpicious Reign, that you will maintain our Religion, Laws and Liberties; and we moſt humbly and dutifully aſſure your Majeſty of our hearty Zeal and Affection for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family, and of our utter Averſion to the Pretender, and inviolable Loyalty to your Majeſty, upon whom, under God, we depend for all that's valuable to us as Men and Chriſtians.

May all Divine Bleſſings attend your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Iſſue; may there never be wanting a Prince of your Royal Line to ſway the Britiſh Scepter; and after you have long upon Earth been the glorious Defender of the Proteſtant Cauſe, the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe, and the Delight of all your People, may you inherit im-immortal Bliſs. Theſe are the ardent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of your Burgh of Dundee.

Sign'd in their Preſence and by their Appointment, by Alex. Ferriar, Provoſt.

Dundee, July 14, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of Southampton, in Common-Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert Eyre, Eſq; their Recorder, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of your Town and County of Southampton, beg Leave to expreſs our Concern for the Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of bleſſed Memory; and at the ſame Time, with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Your Majeſty is endeared to this Nation by repeated Inſtances of Goodneſs and Benevolence. The Experience we have had of thoſe Royal Virtues which adorned your private Life, and ſhone forth with ſo much Luſtre in your publick Adminiſtration, aſſures us that you have nothing ſo much at Heart as the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; and that our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoyed under his late Majeſty, will not only be continued to us, but improved.

To compleat our Happineſs, we are bleſs'd in a Queen the Glory of her Sex, eminently diſtinguiſhed for unexampled Conſtancy to that Faith, of which your Majeſty is the great Defender.

May the ſame indulgent Providence that has left theſe Nations nothing to wiſh for but the Continuance of the Proſperity they now enjoy, make your Majeſty's Reign long and happy over us and our Poſterity; and may your illuſtrious Family ever ſupply us with Succeſſours to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, who ſhall follow the Examples of their Royal Predeceſſours.

Given under our common Seal this 3d Day of July, 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Landholders, and Commoners of your Ancient Borough of Malmsbury, in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

PErmit us, Great Sir, to condole with your moſt ſacred Majeſty the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Father, of glorious Memory. Nothing could have repaired this Loſs to your Dominions, but your Majeſty's peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors. The early Proofs you have given of your Courage, Conduct, and all other your princely Virtues, tending always to the Eaſe and Benefit of Mankind, gives us a certain Hope of the Bleſſings we your Subjects are to enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign. We ſhall always think it our Duty to God and our Country, to maintain and defend your Majeſty's moſt undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms. The numerous Iſſue with which the beſt of Queens your Royal Conſort has bleſs'd theſe Kingdoms, are certain Marks of the Divine Favour to your People, tending to perpetuate to us the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberty under the Government of your Royal Family.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, having been tranſmitted by Richard Edgecumbe, Eſq, Cuſtos Rotulorum of that County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave, with all Humility, to expreſs our Sorrow and Concern for the Death of your Royal Father; and at the ſame Time, to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms.

It muſt be undoubtedly the higheſt Satisfaction to all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, that the Study of our Conſtitution and our Laws has been your principal Care and Concern; from hence being thoroughly aſſured, that our Religion and Liberties will be maintained within their proper Fences; and your Majeſty's particular Experience muſt have taught you, that the beſt Support of your own Grandeur is in the Happineſs of your People.

As this Nation has been of Old famous for holding the Scales of Europe, and, like Juſtice herſelf, with an impartial Hand, has weighed and determined the diſputed Privileges of it; ſo we are confident, that under your Majeſty's wiſe Government, we ſhall tenaciouſly inſiſt on ſuch as are peculiar to us; and whatever Claims have been hitherto made to Gibraltar, a Place ſo eſſential to our Trade, we are ſatisfied will be now at an End: For what can foreign Powers expect from us, but an united Reſolution between King and People of protecting their common Rights?

And your Majeſty's County of Cornwall in particular, which has always been more immediately mediately under your Care and Protection, has a firm Reliance upon your Majesty, from your Experience of it, to bestow all Marks of Royal Favour upon the Manufactures of it, not only of such Importance to the County itself, but so largely contributing to the Commerce of the whole Kingdom.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, attended with the Blessings of Peace and Plenty, is the sincere Wish of,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Anglesea, has been presented to His Majesty by Hugh Williams and the Hon. Henry Bertie, Esqrs. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majesty in waiting. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

THE same Messenger that brought us the melancholy News of our late gracious Sovereign's Death, gave us at the same Time the comfortable Account of your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Throne of Great Britain. Our Grief and Joy would have run to Excess, and been equally unsupportable, had they not thus come Hand in Hand, and so served as a Check to each other.

We can't but be under the deepest and most grateful Sense of the Goodness of Providence, when we see the most zealous Protestant, the most affectionate Husband, the most tender Father, and indulgent Master, wear the Crown, and placed upon the Throne of these Realms.

It is with inexpressible Pleasure and Satisfaction we see those Virtues that so eminently distinguish our Prince, come at Length to exert themselves in our King, and fix'd in their proper Sphere to shed an universal Influence, and shine forth in their full Lustre and Beauty.

As you have for many Years dignified your ancient Britons by a more immediate Relation, so we think ourselves obliged, in a more particular Manner, to congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne, and return our sincerest Thanks for the many and great Instances of your Love and Affection for us, and contribute all our Endeavours to deserve your future Care and Protection, and render our King as great as our Prince was good.

A gracious Queen, endowed with all those exalted Qualities that must be the most shining Jewels in the Crown you wear; a lovely Prospect of destroying all Appearances of Faction and Discontent; a Constitution in Church and State, happy in the early and most solemn Assurances of your Royal Care and Protection; are Blessings that to latest Posterity will render your auspicious Reign the most amiable Period in our British Histories.

That these Blessings may be as durable as they are great, is the hearty and sincere Wishes of,

Your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County the 4th Day of August, 1727, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant of the said County. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, in the most humble Manner, to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late most gracious Sovereign; and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on your immediate and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

The eminent Valour by which your Majesty very early distinguished yourself in Defence of the common Liberties of Europe; the Wisdom, Justice and Clemency of your Administration during the Time of your Regency, and your gracious and solemn Declaration, that our Rights and Privileges, our Religion and Laws, shall be your chief and constant Care, have justly endeared you in the most tender Manner to all your Subjects: And we assure your Majesty, that we will, upon all Occasions, distinguish ourselves by our Zeal in supporting your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Protestant Succession in your Royal Line, as by Law established. And we cannot but observe with the greatest Satisfaction and Pleasure, that the Beginning of your Reign is attended with this pecular Mark of Felicity, that you reign as universally in the Hearts of your Subjects as you rule over their Persons.

We congratulate your Majesty on that Happiness you enjoy in having a Queen so justly famed for her Piety and Constancy in her Religion; whose shining Vertues and Princely Qualities have made her the Joy and Admiration of all your People.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be as lasting as we assure ourselves it will be prosperous and glorious to your Majesty and these Kingdoms; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Family to sit upon the Throne, and make this Kingdom happy, are and shall be the constant and fervent Wishes of,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects.
